FEDERAL AGENTS CLAIM JEWELRY RING IS ACTIVE

Mors and Katz Killings Serve To Establish New Clues

LEADER IS SOUGHT

Believed Conspirators Have Headquarters on West Coast

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—A jewelry smuggling conspiracy of vast dimensions has been uncovered by agents working in a half dozen sections of the country, since the killing of Mrs. Theresa Mors in Los Angeles.

Smuggled jewels valued at more than $250,000 already have been seized and a man known as Medamsky, who is said to have left the country, is being sought as the actual director if not the head of the conspiracy in which he is alleged to have had a dozen or more aids.

The killing of Mrs. Mors with "Kid McCoy charged, served insofar as the conspiracy is concerned, merely to provide the first defense lead into the smuggling. A second lead was opened in Los Angeles Monday with the killing of Harry I. Katz and officials estimated that "several hundred" persons scattered widely throughout the country have come innocently into possession of the smuggled gems, about half of which they will never be able to identify.

Although much work remains for the custom agents in searching for further details of the conspiracy their success thus far has been such that the treasury department felt justified in making public part of the story as related by service officers in New York.

The smugglers are said to maintain headquarters at New York but Pacific coast centers especially Los Angeles and San Francisco appear to have provided the principal markets. Most of the jewelry, the agents reported, was purchased by smugglers in Australia and Germany with the depreciated currency of those nations after some of it had found its way out of Russia.

DOWNFALL OF MAN TOLD BY EVANGELIST HERE

In the revival meeting at the First Christian church last night, speaking on "The Fall and Redemption of Man" Mr. Merrill said that the four steps in the failure in Eden are typical of the downfall of almost all individuals who go astray. He enumerated these steps as: idleness, bad company, temptation and insubordination or rebellion. He also said that the temptation had four elements: doubt, appetite, pride and ambition. "Having traced the downward steps, we now have only to retrace or return," said the speaker. "We must return to God and our lost happiness by faithful obedience, trust, holy associations and Christian service."

The discourse tonight will be in the form of a popular sermon-lecture on "What is Man?" and is said to be entertaining as well as instructive. The public is cordially invited.

RETURNS FROM FOUR COUNTIES NOT YET IN

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY.—The state election board was today trying to get into communication with the county boards in four counties to hasten the filing of official returns. Returns were received today from Oklahoma and Creek counties, but this left Bryan, Mayes, Nowata, and Okfuskee still missing.

Mayes and Nowata are in the first congressional district and until returns from these counties are received the congressional race between S. J. Montgomery and Wayne W. Bayless will remain in doubt, though Montgomery asserts such trifling chances as may be discovered cannot take away his slight lead.

It would take nearly 35 years for an airplane, traveling two miles a minute, to fly from the earth to Mars.

The style show, which proved a feature at the presentation of the Follies here Tuesday night, will be held again tonight. Ten leading Ada merchants will reveal the splendors of early winter styles to Ada people.

COMPANY SEEKING ADA FIRE ENGINE

Claim Failure to Pay Rentals Cause for Action Against City

Bring out the old hose cart to protect Ada property against fire destruction.

That's what will happen if the American LaFrance Fire Engine company wins their suit now on file in district court.

The American LaFrance company seeks payment or rentals to the extent of $7,390 plus $739 for attorney fees plus interest at the rate of 6 percent on the rentals they claim past due as well as possession of the fire engine secured from their company on lease in 1921.

In the petition filed in district court here yesterday afternoon, the American LaFrance company, through their local attorneys Busby & Harrell, alleged that only the initial payment of $1,850 was paid on the delivery of the engine here November 15, 1921 and that annual payments since that time have not been paid.

The petitioners allege that on July 5, 1921, the city of Ada entered into a contract whereby a fire engine was leased for a period of five years, annual payments aggregating a total of $14,500. The first payment due before October 1, 1921 was for $1,850; the second at the same period in 1922 for $2,914; in 1923 for $3,080; in 1924 for $3,345; in 1925 for $2,410 with interest at six percent.

The allegation charged that the payments inclusive of October 1924 have not been acted on by the city of Ada and that their requests have not been honored to date.

The company declared that because of the failure to meet the contract stipulation they were entitled to recovery of the fire engine.

McAlester is rated as one of the strongest teams of the section and comes to Ada with only the Tulsa high school's victory over them as their loss totals of the season.

Ada's defeat at Henryetta is not considered as a fair test of the strength of the team, owing to the fact that two of the Henryetta touchdowns were results of unusual breaks in the game.

According to advance dope concerning the McAlester team, it boasts of some of the greatest high school stars of the state, especially in O'Leary, fullback, and Tarver, end. The invading team is hoped to outgrow the Ada team by several pounds.

The game at Henryetta Tuesday did not seriously impair the Ada team, none of the regular string players being injured to any extent that will keep them out of the game Friday.

AMERICANS DON'T KNOW WHAT TO EAT, DENTISTS

(By the Associated Press)

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 13.—Unless the American people eat more whole grain breads, more vegetables cooked to retain the lime salts, more whole milk and natural sweets, "the next two or three generations will be a nation of weaklings, so far as bone and teeth are concerned," Dr. C. B. Fowlkes of Birmingham, Ala., asserted in an address today at the American Dental Association convention.

"In the matter of diet, the dental profession has an opportunity for doing a real service in outlining a diet that furnishes the necessary lime salts to build tooth and bone structure during the pre-natal and pre-school period, as well as during childhood to the eighteenth year," Dr. C. B. Fowlkes said.

"One has only to look about him to see that the American people are not eating the right kind of breads, rice and sweets, to say nothing of properly proportioned vegetable diet," the speaker declared. He stated that it is possible for any individual to reduce decay in his own mouth 75 percent by proper home prophylaxis, and that proper mouth hygiene would reduce the percentage of contagious diseases in children, such as mumps, measles, scarlet fever, etc.

HILL BEATS COURT ON PRO TEST CASE

Upheld by Court in Right to Make Wine for Private Use

(By the Associated Press)

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 13.—John Philip Hill of Baltimore was acquitted by a jury in the United States court today of violating the Volstead law by manufacturing intoxicating wine and cider at his home.

The fifth and sixth counts in the indictment which charged Hill with maintaining a common nuisance was dismissed under instruction from Judge Morris A. Soper, who presided at the trial.

The trial was the result of a test case forced by Hill, who maintains that the Volstead law gave the farmer a right to manufacture cider and wine but withheld from the city the right to manufacture beer.

The trial brought from Judge Soper the opinion that the clause of the Volstead act providing that beverages of more than half of one per cent alcohol was illegal did not apply to home-made wine and cider provided the production is non-intoxicating "in fact."

Judge Soper also indicated by his ruling and his statement to the jury that the burden rested upon the government to show that such home made products were intoxicating in fact and a violation of the law.

CRIPPLED TIGERS OUT TO BATTLE BISONS FRIDAY

A crippled team will accompany Coach Joe Milam, Tiger mentor, to Shawnee Friday morning to enter combat with the undefeated Baptist Bisons Friday afternoon.

Coach Milam stated that only 17 available men would entrain for Shawnee for the clash with the Bisons, injuries and resignations from the squad, cutting down the total of available men for the fray. Henderson, Nettles, McKinney and Johnson will be off the lineup at Shawnee. McKinney and Johnson are suffering from injuries, Johnson, however, may accompany the team and be used if his services are urgently required. Quarter Jack Kelly is also suffering injuries and while he will start the game at Shawnee, it is doubtful that he will be used for the entire period.

Despite the handicaps, Milam expects to give the Bisons, victors over Southeastern, a scrap on their own field tomorrow afternoon.

The date of the Bison game was in doubt here for some time, owing to a misunderstanding of authorities here. Some thought the game would be played Saturday while other arrangement marked the game for Friday. Last minute information settled the game for tomorrow.

DRAMATIC ARTS IN COLLEGE POPULAR

Miss Bess Shauliss Proving Popular Instructor in New Work

Miss Bess M. Shauliss, now in charge of the Dramatic Arts department of the East Central State Teachers college is obtaining a marked success through her thorough knowledge and experience with the students who are enrolled for work with her as well as with the audience to whom her plays have been presented.

Miss Shauliss is a graduate of Southwestern teachers college in Pennsylvania, a graduate of expression of oratory at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and has studied expression and dramatic art in the University of Pittsburgh. She has had experience in high school and following a position with the government in project work, she came to the local college.

Besides the private classes in expression she is in charge of a class in dramatics. This department has already presented several plays to the student body and at several neighboring towns. The plays thus far have been simple, but Miss Shauliss expresses the intention of leading up to intricate and more difficult plays. In fact she has chosen a very difficult play for the junior-senior presentation "If I Were King," a play of French setting, and for the Sophomore play "The Charm School." She hopes to have the pupils under her supervision now, ready to master difficult plays by the time these are scheduled for presentation.

Miss Shauliss has had work under the personal supervision of Dr. Byron King and in teaching she uses his methods and text book, which has been translated in nine different languages. To those interested especially in the department of dramatics, a great opportunity is offered them as the credits given by Miss Shauliss will be accorded in the Byron King school of oratory and thus shorten the term for graduation there.

GANG LEADER IS PAID ELABORATE TRIBUTE IN DEATH

O'Banion, Slain Gangster, is Given Costly Funeral Tribute

ONE ARREST MADE

Blue Sedan Owner Traced to Place; First Arrest for Shooting

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Dion O'Banion, florist-gunner, lay in a $10,000 casket today guarded by silent square-jawed henchmen amid thousands of dollars worth of flowers and wreaths, while police traced what they considered the first tangible clue to the identity of his slayers.

They held Jules Fortuzzio, 23 a boxer known as Jimmy Wells. In the garage a blue sedan was found answering the description of the one in which the slayers fled from O'Banion's flower shop after the killing. The car's license plate, police said, corresponds with that which witnesses said the slayers' automobile carried.

Harry Fortuzzio, his father, denied the automobile had been out of the garage Monday at the time of the slaying, but later admitted that he had used it himself when he was confronted by two garage employees who contradicted his first story. His son maintained silence.

Expect no Prosecution

Results from the arrest were expected by Michael Hughes, detective chief, who expressed doubt that the slayers, if found, would ever be prosecuted.

"I expect we will satisfy ourselves to a moral certainty as to the identity of the killers," Chief Hughes said, "but nothing will come of it. There will be no prosecution. It's the same old story. We'll never be able to get anybody to identify them if we locate them."

O'Banion's friends, professing ignorance of the identity of the slayers, also are investigating. Louis Alterie, the slain leader's lieutenant, upon whom O'Banion's mantle is reported to have fallen, has told reporters that "if I can make any appointment with the killers I will shoot it out with them."

He said he and O'Banion had received telephone threats and that the former leader expected trouble Monday. Alterie had intended going to the flower shop as a guard but overslept, he said. He attributed the killing to jealousy of O'Banion's growing power in the underworld and politically.

EYES OF SPORTDOM NOW ON LAWRENCE

Sooner-Jayhawk Clash to Be Battle of Interest Saturday

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 13.—With the football teams from both of Oklahoma's state schools, the University of Oklahoma and the A. and M. college, away this week-end fans will be watching Lawrence, Kansas, where the Sooners meet the University of Kansas, and Omaha, Neb., where the Aggies play Creighton university.

A special train will carry the Norman team and rooters to Lawrence. It will leave tomorrow. The Aggies supported by several faithful followers leave today for Omaha.

NORMAN, Nov. 13.—Spurred on by the ominous reports coming from the land of the Jayhawks, the Sooners are being driven hard this week in preparation for the annual clash with the University of Kansas at Lawrence Saturday.

Despite the upset at the hands of the University of Missouri Tigers, the Owen men are not discouraged. The Tiger battle, although it was one of the hardest struggles seen on Oklahoma soil this year, left no casualties in the O. U. camp, and the team is in better shape than since the Nebraska game.

Bristow, Price, Schafer, Penick and Wallace, who have been working under handicaps for several weeks are getting their stride again and are expected to play their best game of the season at Lawrence Saturday.

Fully aware that Kansas is strong on the defensive, Owen has been drilling his men this week for the extra punch that will penetrate the Jayhawk line. The Hawkers' feat of holding the Drake Bulldogs to a 6-16 tie last Saturday has increased the Sooners' respect for the Kansas.

The two schools have met 20 times in the last 22 years. Kansas has won 13, Oklahoma 6 and one was a tie, 16-16 in 1914.

Only two changes are likely in the Oklahoma line-up which will start the game Saturday. Woodall, who still is nursing a sprained ankle, probably will be replaced by Mathias a left end. Mathias showed up well last Saturday and his catching of Bristow's 31-yard pass was one of the most sensational plays of the game. Carroll is working at quarter back with the first string this week, and it seems likely that Owen will start the flashy little field general against the Jayhawks. Present indications are that the remainder of the team will be: Price, left end; Smoot and Penick, tackles; White and Brockman, guards; Schafer, center; Lamb and Hendricks, halves and Captain Bristow, fullback.

A special train will carry the University band of 42 pieces, the Sooner "Jazz Hounds" and 400 rooters to help the team storm the Kansas stronghold. The special will leave Norman Friday evening, arriving at Lawrence at 8:30 a. m. Saturday and will depart for Norman at midnight Saturday.

Tulsa Family Sets Record at Sunday School Regularity

(By the Associated Press)

TULSA, Nov. 13.—A Tulsa mother and her two children believe they hold the all-Oklahoma record for attendance at Sunday school. For the past 13 years, Mrs. G. W. Herbold, her daughter, Mildred and son, Lorin, have not missed attending a Sunday. The total number of Sundays without absence now is 680.

Though these three members of the Herbold family have established the records, other members of the family are not far behind. Vaughan, the elder son, has missed but one Sunday in the past 12 years. G. W. Herbold the father of the family has preached two sermons every Sunday in Baptist missionary churches throughout this section.

The family started out to make their record in Missouri where Mildred, now 13, was born. Mildred first attended Sunday school when she was one month old.

"We have used every kind of transportation from a mule to a late model motor car, and many times we have walked," Mr. Herbold said, "but we would no more think of a Sunday without Sunday school than a night without getting some sleep."

POTTAWATOMIE COUNTY TO SEND TEACHER TO CAPITAL

(By the Associated Press)

McCLOUD, Nov. 13.—Pottawatomie county is going to send a "school marm" to Oklahoma City in January as one of its representatives in the house of the state legislature. Miss Gladys Whittet, principal of the McCloud high school, was elected as one of the three state representatives at the recent election.

When asked to make the race on the democratic ticket in the primary, Miss Whittet agreed, at first not taking the filing seriously. In the general election she led the county ticket, outdistancing her democratic colleagues, both of whom also were elected, by 500 and 900 majorities.

Miss Whittet has one legislative hobby, the enactment of laws strengthening the schools and making certain sufficient funds for the operation of the public school system.

You will miss it if you miss hearing Rev. Merrell's sermon—lecture at the First Christian church tonight.

CAPITALIST, SUEED, DENOUNCES KIN OF FORMER CZAR

Choice epithets were hurled at Prince Felix Youssouf (below), cousin of the late Russian czar and reputed slayer of Rasputin, by Joseph E. Widener (at top), Philadelphia financier, when he took the stand in the prince's suit for the return of two paintings by Rembrandt valued at more than $500,000. The prince says he sold the paintings to Widener with the agreement that he could buy them back at the same price plus interest. Widener says the prince himself violated the contract. The capitalist intends to present his art collection, worth millions, to the public.

STUDENT PARENTS IN MANY CRAFTS

Many Occupations Followed By Parents of O. U. Students

NORMAN, Nov. 13.—(Special)—With 699 students who reported the occupations of their parents as farmers and ranchers, this occupation stands first by a wide margin in the list of 77 occupations marked by University of Oklahoma students on their enrollment records, according to figures announced by George E. Wadack, assistant registrar.

Merchants come next on the list with 516 and 215 students reported that their fathers were physicians. The oil business is represented by 186, while 157 parents are lawyers, 113 real estate men and 108 bankers.

Engineers and railway employees are represented in the university by 105 students, while 27 editors and publishers send their sons and daughters to school here. Twenty-eight county officers, 25 city officers, 24 government officers, 15 state officers, and one city mayor have children in the university. ## Health Notes

(From the Department of Public Health, State of Oklahoma, CARL PUCKETT, M. D., Commissioner)

Pertussis (Whooping Cough)
There has recently been reported to this department a number of cases of the above disease, scattered over different parts of the state.

The seriousness of whooping cough is not appreciated by the laity, who, because of the almost universal susceptibility, frequently take the attitude that the disease may as well be endured at one time as another. Reference to the effect of age on mortality however, will reveal the fact that the longer a child lives before whooping cough is contracted, the greater is the chance of recovery. Unnecessary exposure is therefore, never justifiable.

A child suffering from whooping cough should be excluded from school and isolated from other children. In the home the patient should be quarantined from members of the family who have not had the disease.

There is no known specific treatment for whooping cough and there exists no mechanical measure, drug serum or vaccine which materially alters its clinical course.

Rules and regulations have been adopted by this department to control whooping cough. If you wish to reduce the number of deaths from this cause and to make your community a safer place to live in, you will report to the county health officer, all cases coming to your notice and to obey all rules and regulations designated to prevent the spread of the disease.

The treatment of whooping cough is one of the hard propositions of medicine. We may palliate the disease by diminishing both the frequency and severity of its paroxysms at night may be prolonged. Parents should be careful to protect their children from undue exposure because it is this that causes complications, and it is the complications that are dangerous.

A gallon of gasoline contains enough energy to run a car 450 miles on a level.

Such popularity must be deserved

To convert critics into enthusiasts, whether for a new school of music or for a cigarette, requires something more than luck. There's sound reason for every big swing in popular taste.

So, to account for Chesterfield's swift rise, look to the cigarette itself, its tobaccos, its blending—in short, its taste. This one thing alone—its decidedly better taste—explains why thousands of smokers are changing from other cigarettes to Chesterfield.

LITTLE BETTING ON FALL ELECTION

Not in Years Has Wagering On Outcome of Election Been so Light

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(Special)—It has been many years since the Wall Street district has experienced such inactivity in the matter of election betting as during this September.

With the presidential campaign well under way and with the odds continuing in favor of Coolidge very few actual wagers have been made, and those which have been posted have in most instances, been for small amounts. The leading betting commissioners in the Street say they have substantial sums to place on Coolidge at 3 to 1, but there is a dearth of Davis and La Follette money.

The naming of the candidates in the gubernatorial race in New York brought some life to election betting in the closing days of last week but it still was tame in comparison with the election betting of late September and early October in other years. Just prior to the Democratic state convention, last week even money wagers placed on Governor Smith's chances of reelection and immediately after the Republicans named Roosevelt a flood of Democratic money poured into the financial district. It was estimated that $100,000 was placed with the betting commissioners Friday and Saturday to bet on Governor Smith at 6 to 5. 10-6-31*

Contrast to the current apathy, the betting activity of other years is of interest. In the Harding-Cox campaign of 1920 the odds on Harding were 2 to 1 and later 3 to 1 in September. Around Oct. 1 the odds on Harding moved to 4 to 1, with the Democrats holding out for 6 to 1. On Oct. 29 it was reported in the Street that a syndicate had a pool of $1,000,000 which it was willing to place on Harding at 10 to 1. The odds were 6 to 1 on Harding on election eve.

It is on old axiom in the financial district that Wall Street betting odds are "never wrong." This is held to have been proved even in 1916, which was probably the most uncertain of all campaigns in recent years. In the closing weeks of September, 1916, betting in the financial district was 2 to 1 in favor of Hughes against Wilson. At the beginning of October the odds on Hughes dropped to 10 to 7, and in the third week of October the betting was 5 to 4 on Hughes. At the close of October all bets were made on an even money basis.

The most interesting development in connection with the election betting in 1916 was on election day and a few days following, because of the uncertainty as to who was really elected. This was not known until the results in California were estimated that approximately $2,000,000 was bet on the outcome of the election after the opening of the polls on Nov. 7, 1916. On election night when the news was flashed from one end of the country to the other that "Hughes was elected," William A. Brady was credited with having held to the belief that Wilson was elected. At 9 o'clock on election night a broker, it is said, offered $25,000 to $1,000 that Hughes was elected. Mr. Brady accepted the bet, which was posted at the Hotel Astor.

On the day following election day betting was as active as at any time during the campaign, due chiefly to hedging operations on the part of individuals who had favored Hughes earlier in the campaign. On the Curb the odds fluctuated with the news from California. Hughes started the day at 5 to 4, and later the odds advanced to 2 to 1 in his favor. Then news came from Minnesota which resulted in favor of Wilson, with some small bets made at 3 to 1. Then came conflicting news from California which resulted in the Wilson odds dropping to 5 to 4. But later news from the Pacific Coast favored Wilson and the odds on him again advanced to 2 to 1.

In the campaign of 1912 Wilson was the favorite throughout the campaign. Early in October and during the greater part of that month the odds were 2 to 1. Just before election he was quoted at 5 to 1 over Roosevelt, and 3 to 1 over Taft. In 1908 the odds in September were 2 to 1 on Taft against Bryan. Later in October Taft was quoted at 3 to 1 and on election eve at 7 to 1.

Roosevelt was quoted at 2 to 1 in the early days of the 1904 campaign during September and early October. When it developed that Roosevelt would win by a landslide the odds moved to 5 to 1 in his favor. In the 1900 campaign the odds favored McKinley from the start and were 4 to 1 just prior to election day.

Authentic figures covering the early days of the election campaign of 1896 are unavailable. This was the famous "free coinage" campaign. According to the records the betting slightly favored Bryan until he made his speech in Madison Square Garden on Aug. 12. Almost overnight the odds shifted to 3 to 1 in favor of McKinley, and continued in his favor up to Election Day. In 1892 the odds were slightly in favor of Grover Cleveland during the month of September and lengthened until late in October. Cleveland was a 5 to 4 favorite in also there was a shift almost over-night and in October Harrison was 5 to 4. These odds continued up to election day.

FLAPPERS GROWING KEEN TO JOIN LONDON POLICE

LONDON, Oct. 6.—English women aroused by a desire to enlarge the long restricted horizon of their activities, are rushing pell-mell to Scotland Yard these days in an endeavor to enlist in the Metropolitan Police Force at the very fountain head of police administration in England.

Their endeavors are a little premature. Nevertheless, they are greatly encouraged by a committee report recommending increase in the number of women "bobbies," at present very small. But parliament must enact the necessary legislation to provide for the salaries of the police women before actual recruiting can commence.

All this to the contrary ambitious women, not content with merely writing to Scotland Yard, besiege the entrance of the big round-towered building off Whitehall in an attempt to press in person their claims to preferment as members of the police force. All sorts of women are among the besiegers, old, young, middle-aged. Girls with bobbed hair and other gay young friskers are strangely mixed up with grave plodders, all anxious to serve as guardians of John Bull's peace.

Did You Ever Stop to Think?

BY E. R. WAITE.

Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce

THAT of the five human senses: Seeing, Hearing, Feeling, Smelling and Tasting, SIGHT is more indispensable than the other four senses combined.

THAT sight should be used more to read carefully the news of political matters so the voter could act wisely as to who to select and who to vote for, for public offices.

THAT often many men do not show public spirit enough to vote.

THAT they often speak contemptuously of politicians and complain about high taxes, scold about the lack of judgment of officials, yet they do nothing themselves to help improve these conditions.

THAT frequently men slip into office because they have a genial manner and are "good fellows," while the man with business ability is overlooked.

THAT men with business ability, breadth of mind, and sincerity of purpose is what is needed in public office today.

THAT the country will have better government only when the people pay more attention to politics and the ability of candidates to do the work required.

THAT every voter should vote and they should insist that capable people be on the ticket.

THAT it is not always the officeholder that is at fault.

THAT he is not always backed up by needful laws.

THAT the voter should express some of his opinions in the way he votes.

PEOPLE who are not interested enough in good government to vote should soft pedal on some of their opinions.

Question Raised Of Legality of Negro Suffrage

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 5.—A suit attacking the validity of the Fourteenth amendment from a new angle will be filed in federal district court here Monday in the form of a petition seeking to enjoin Walter L. Cohen, negro, comptroller of customs of the port of New Orleans, from exercising the duties of that office, according to The Times-Picayune.

The action, if successful would have the effect of disenfranchising every negro in the United States.

The petition as published by the newspaper charges that "Cohen, falsely alleged himself to be a citizen of the United States" when he took the oath of office. It asserts that the defendant is not a citizen of this country but "a person of African blood and descent, and is inherently incapable of being a citizen of the United States."

The suit is to be brought in the name of H. Edwin Bolte, an attorney of Washington, D. C., according to the newspaper, who declares that the grounds upon which it is based never have been the subject of discussion of the courts. The petition sets forth that three-fourths of the states did not ratify the amendment nor was it adopted by the required two-thirds vote of both houses of congress. Bolte was quoted as saying that although he and his assistant had examined all of more than 200 discussion of the court, which had to do with the amendment in not one of them were the points raised in his action passed upon nor were they made an issue.

The petition charges conspiracy to the authors of the amendment in congress and various sections are cited in an effort to show that they put the amendment into effect unlawfully.

As to Cohen, the petition charges that when he took the oath of office in Washington April 16, 1924, he swore falsely to his alleged citizenship, claiming to be a citizen under "the provision of the alleged fourteenth amendment of the constitution of the United States."

The petition states eleven states of the union at the time of the adoption of the resolution "culminating in the alleged article 14," were unconstitutionally deprived of their equal suffrage in the senate, that six states were by coercion forced to ratify it and that congress "did without power or authority, unlawfully declare said amendment to the constitution adopted and a part of the constitution."

The Texas and Pacific Company should complete the rig in section 31-4-6 today or tomorrow. Rigging up process should be under way by the middle of the week. This is to be a deep test.

Amateur Bouts for European Titles

(By the Associated Press)
STOCKHOLM—European amateur boxing titles in six classes will be fought for at Stockholm in April, 1925. The International Boxing Federation authorized Sweden to hold this festive carnival after England had declined a similar invitation tendered to her, as the mother of boxing, during the Olympic Games at Paris.

Teams are expected to enter the championships from Great Britain, France, Belgium, Denmark, Norway and Italy.

In Sweden boxing is a comparatively young sport, but it is among the most popular. It was not until after the war that the sport was organized in this country but 150 clubs already belong to the national governing body. Most of them have British or Danish trainers.

THEY DID NOT MOVE

BUT COULD NOT VOTE

OKLAHOMA CITY.—The changing of a county line within six months of the recent primary robbed several hundred Tillman county citizens of their franchise, the state supreme court ruled Wednesday.

A part of Kiowa county was added to Tillman county and the court held that as voters in the affected area had not lived in Tillman county for six months, although they had not moved their residence, under the constitution they could not vote.

A district court previously had held that they could vote as they had not moved.

ARMENIANS MUST LEAVE OWN LAND

Country Alarmed at Decreasing Population of Native People

(By the Associated Press)

ALEXANDROPOL, Armenia.—In order to assist the Armenian state authorities in their efforts to repopulate Armenia, American relief workers here who are caring for many thousands of orphans, are encouraging the older boys and girls to marry and establish homes. Each girl of marriageable age who signifies her willingness to take a husband is given a full outfit of clothing, a pair of shoes, an outfit of linen and ten dollars in currency as a "dowry" from the Americans. Scores of girls and youths have taken advantage of the Americans' offer and have asked the officials of the Near East Relief, who are in charge of the orphanages, to find them suitable life partners.

For some time past the Armenian government authorities have been alarmed at the rapid decrease, not only in the population of Armenia proper, but in the number of Armenians scattered throughout the world. According to a recent census the present inhabitants of Armenia, which is now under bolshevik rule, number only 1,100,000. The world population of Armenians including those in the United States, is estimated at 3,000,000. During the last 15 years, it is stated by government officials, more than a million Armenians perished at the hands of the Turks and as a result of the World War.

While the government is confident that the natural tendency of the Armenians to multiply will be sufficient to offset the great losses in the race caused by massacres, war and famine, it entertains serious doubts regarding the capacity of the country to support more people than now live within its narrow borders. Not only is the country arid and unproductive, but some of the most valuable areas, notably the Kars, Van and Iady districts, have been taken from Armenia and given to Turkey. For this reason the government, thus far, has found it impossible to find abodes for the 65,000 Armenian refugees now living in Greece. A place outside Armenia, probably in some sparsely settled section of Russia, is likely, therefore, to be allocated to them by the central government at Moscow.

POSTAL INSPECTORS AFTER CLUE IN POSTOFFICE BLAST

(By the Associated Press)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 13.—Postal inspectors from Chicago, arrived here today to aid local inspectors in the investigation of the explosion which wrecked a loading dock and receiving room of the main postoffice here yesterday killing three men, injuring another critically and 12 others less seriously.

The theory that the blast caused by premature explosion of a bomb sent through the mail was advanced by postoffice authorities. Police and firemen worked all night by aid of a search light seeking a clue in the wreckage. No fragment of the bomb was found, however.

German Film Extra's Pay Fixed

By Character of Dress Required

BERLIN.—The character of the clothes required for their work forms the basis for the pay demanded by the supernumeraries in the German films, who have recently formed a union. The lowest rate of pay is fixed for those who appear in street and mob scenes, in which the most ordinary clothing is required.

The highest rate provided by the union scale is for the ballroom and cabaret scenes in which the women and girls are obliged to appear in fancy costumes and the men in formal evening dress. The supernumeraries are obliged to furnish their own apparel.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

HE THAT PASSETH BY, AND MEDITATE WITH STRIFE BELONGING NOT TO HIM, IS LIKE ONE THAT TAKETH A DOG BY THE EARS.—Proverbs 26:17.

$200,000,000 FOR NEW CHURCHES.

Two hundred million dollars will be spent on church buildings in the United States this year, it is estimated. This staggering sum gives only a small idea of the magnitude of the Christian religion in this country, but it shows that many millions of people are living their religion.

For almost two thousand years the Christian religion has grown and grown. At first it had to grow in spite of the persecution of the ruling powers. It has had to fight its way against crooked politicians to this day. It has met opposition, but opposition has been dissolved, only to rise in some other form. Against Christ's church, however, all opposition has been as the chaff blowing against a mountain of granite.

For two thousand years kingdoms have risen and fallen. Monarchs have ascended thrones and been dethroned. Nations have been swallowed up by other nations. Revolution has wiped out ruling families and disease has wiped out whole communities. Yellow fever, with scorching breath, has walked through cities and left death on every hand. Nature in her fury has blown sections to atoms, and her fire has consumed others.

Only the Christian religion has gone on and forward. Those who have fought it have been forgotten. Those who have taught it have been crowned as martyrs and servants of man. For the sake of Christ, man has borne many hardships. He has gone into the jungles and has scaled mountain tops. He has lived among uncivilized and savage people. He has caressed and loved and even fought to advance the cause.

History seems to prove that there is nothing so real as religion, for it above all other things endures.

For the past year Ramsey MacDonald held the center of interest on the stage of European politics, but with his passing Mussolini, premier of Italy, has taken the spotlight again. In fact, he has been the object of interest all along, but now he has most of it to himself. Some writers have painted him in glowing colors and others have given him a darker hue, but friend and foe alike agree that he has restored order in Italy and made the authority of the government supreme again. His methods have been direct and somewhat rough at times but he did what he started out to accomplish and still holds the reins of power. The old line politicians who sought only their own interests have been relegated to the rear for the time being, at least, and they lose no opportunity to give the dictator a dig in the back when they dare, but he goes his way. He has greatly reduced the expenses of government beginning with the very practical method of firing a good many thousands of useless employees and retrenching all along the line. One trouble with Italy before he took hold was too many parties. None could muster a majority in parliament and it was only by a combination of three or four that a cabinet could get a majority behind it. This led to trading and log rolling methods that produced all sorts of corruption and paralyzed the arm of the government. Mussolini's methods have not always been of the parlor or lady like sort, but he has secured results.

The street railway of Oklahoma City is having a hard time keeping the wolf from the door. The use of autos has cut the traffic to an extent that the revenues of the car line are cut down below what the company thinks they should be. Two or three increases in rates have been granted, the last one placing the fare at eight cents, but each raise has cut down the number of passengers. Now the company wants to put the figure at an even dime hoping that that will keep things going. All over the United States this movement for higher rates has gone forward in recent years until the day of nickel fares everywhere has been relegated into the realm of history.

In spite of threats of prosecution by the government and possible civil suits, the Oklahoma City Times goes right ahead publishing the income taxes paid last year by citizens of the state. However, the attorney general has made no move as yet to push a case of this kind to a test. Doubtless congress will be opportunely to repeal the publicity section of the revenue law for it certainly has caused some embarrassment among the payers.

A Florida hotel uses the pelican as its emblem. The Baltimore Sun comes along and suggests that the remarkable thing about the pelican is his enormous bill. Rather suggestive but no doubt some who have patronized the Florida hotel will testify that the emblem is highly appropriate.

It is announced that the president will not insist on any tax legislation at the short session of congress. He has had such a woolly time with this congress that he doubtless prefers taking chances on the one that comes in next March. The present bunch, his own partisans and all, have not hesitated to go contrary to his wishes any time it suited them.

HUMANE VENTURE
TASK FOR WOMEN

Sisters Devote Lives to Care
Of Strayed and Homeless Animals

(By the Associated Press)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 13.—Out in the hills of Kansas, across the Missouri River from here and close by that stream, two lone women, Sarah H. and H. H. Jacobs, sisters, are making a sacrificial fight for friendless and suffering animals that is winning them world fame.

These women, by stint and industry, acquired a little home in the outlying district that is given over to housing discarded dogs, cats, birds and horses, and to spreading the gospel of humane endeavor.

In order to carry on their chosen work, H. H. Jacobs works as a book keeper, going a dozen miles daily to her desk, while her sister, white-haired and frail, is housekeeper. In the 20 years since they began the enterprise, and it has been carried on solely through their own means and without monetary recompense, the Jacobs sisters have cared for hundreds of animals, patiently nursing the sick back to strength and providing for the strays and disowned till good homes were found.

In their community neighbors testify to friendly acts of these women that have touched human hearts as well, so there has been no criticism that unnecessary time and money were expended upon animals while youth went neglected.

Boys and girls, as well as grown-up, for miles around call regularly at the Jacobs' home for advice in caring for their pets, and the Misses Jacobs take advantage of the visits to drive home lessons in humane treatment and correct living.

One example of appreciation is the action of Governor P. P. Baxter, who caused the state house flag at Augusta, Me., to be displayed at half-mast when Garry, his Irish setter and faithful companion, was buried with seven of his forebears. The Jacobs are proud of Governor Baxter's friendship, and display his photograph when the incident is related.

Miss H. H. Jacobs, in speaking recently of their work, said: "Governor Baxter's photograph occupies a prominent position in a semi-public room of our house. In the evening it has been the custom for the boys to come in and have a look at it. When a new boy comes, the older ones take the attitude of proprietorship. 'That's him,' they announce expressively. 'Chappie' and 'Brownie' and 'Pal' come along in also, and it has been decided that these dog companions of the boys all show some semblance to Garry."

"Governor Baxter, replying to those who criticized him for lowering the flag in honor of his dog, said: 'I did it, not because Garry was my dog and a member of my family, but to draw people's attention to the qualities of the dog, qualities which are so often forgotten in human relationship.'"

"We are far from being alone in this work; if we were, we should despair," Miss Jacobs continued. "M. K. Matthews, honorable secretary of the National Equine Defense League of London, England, writes: 'We should find work for reforms in treatment of horses almost impossible had not the horses been my friends and companions from early childhood.'"

"C. W. Howard, formerly of Iowa, now engaged in humane work in the Philippines, states that it does less good to arrest a man, ten times for beating his horse than to get just the beginning of a thought into the fellow's head that all living creatures have rights that should be respected."

"There is a woman who has honored us with her interest in our work here and that is Mrs. Minnie Mattern Fiske the actress, widely known for her humane efforts."

"The fight of the establishment of justice and recognition for animals is a fight largely against ignorance. There are certainly legal cruelties that seem to have gained a foothold."

Be Embalmed.

MISS JACOBS TOLD OF "SHEP," THE DOG THAT WOULDN'T STAY AWAY. ALTHOUGH THREE HOMES WERE FOUND FOR "SHEP," HE RETURNED EACH TIME. TWICE HE BROUGHT OTHER DOGS HOME WITH HIM. ONCE HE BROUGHT BACK A "PRISONER" DOG THAT HAD MANAGED TO SLIP OUT.

"Humane work is very broad and far-reaching. It reaches clear to the top, and all of it is the working out of the universal plan. Our own animal family now numbers 42, with frequent visitors."

Yale Professor Predicts Moon
Will Bare Eclipse in January

(By the Associated Press)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 13.—For a few minutes on the morning of January 24 next, the moon will get between the earth and the sun and cut off all the light we get from that body. This eclipse will be visible in the United States, and it doubtless will be seen by more millions of people than any such occurrence in the past, according to Professor E. W. Brown, of Yale University.

An eclipse is not a rare event, one or two occur every year, but the one next January is notable for the fact that it occurs in a territory from which the light of the sun has not been wholly obscured by the moon within the memory of any one living.

"If we look over the records of past eclipses, Professor Brown said, 'and the predictions for future eclipses we soon see that in any one place there will be a total eclipse of the sun only once in every few hundred years. The coming eclipse will produce darkness over a narrow band of territory which stretches from a point somewhat west of Duluth and, after crossing northern Michigan and Wisconsin, is seen in Connecticut and then passes out to sea. The hour of the phenomenon is between nine and nine-thirty, eastern standard time.'"

There was an eclipse in 1919, visible in Brazil and Central West Africa, and another last September seen by the people of California and Northern Mexico.

The accuracy with which the time and position can be predicted for an eclipse is high, Professor Brown went on to say. The staff of the United States Naval Observatory at Washington is always at work calculating the positions of the heavenly bodies years in advance in order that the predictions may be useful. The northern and southern edges of the shadow band can be laid down within a mile. Hence, when the almanac predicts that the southern edge will cross the upper end of Central Park in New York City it is fairly certain that the shadow will not keep off the grass. All this knowledge, however, is not a product of the present generation. It has been slowly accumulating through many centuries. Most of it is due to the proof of the law of gravitation which was given by Isaac Newton toward the end of the 17th century.

"But we have to pay our homage to observers for their industry much further back than that," the professor continued. "More than 2,500 years ago the Chaldeans were able to predict when eclipses would occur, because they had learned that there is a long series of them repeated in a little over 18 years. It is remarkable that they should have been able to get this knowledge."

edge because any eclipse does not cover quite the same part of the earth's surface as the corresponding one which occurred 18 years before. They must have kept records over at least a century, perhaps over many centuries, before the cycle was discovered. The eclipse of next January will be seen by many millions of people. In the map which has been issued by the naval observatory it is seen that the southern boundary of the band over which the sun will be totally eclipsed just covers Duluth (Minn.), Menominee Mich., London, Ont., Dunkirk, N. Y., Wilkes-Barre Pa. and New York City north of Central Park. Well inside the northern edge are Manistique Mich., Toronto, Ont., Auburn, Hudson, N. Y., New Bedford, Mass., while a mile or two outside are Syracuse, N. Y., Springfield, Mass., and Providence, R. I.

The observations which are to be made by the observatories within the region of totality are not yet fully known. Some of them will devote the brief two minutes during which the eclipse lasts to photographing that marvelous fringe of light which is never seen except at a total eclipse, is known as the corona. Others will try to get accurate positions of the moon and also photographs of it so that its size and shape shall be better known."

Professor Brown is chairman of a committee appointed by the American Astronomical Society to inform the public concerning this eclipse.

Third of a Series of Three Interviews with W. L. Hand

"Mothers, who have brought on child through infancy, you know that there is a close relation between several of the most common every-day ailments of children—constipation, indigestion, colds and biliousness."

"You know that a laxative is needed in every one of these conditions, but that the common type of laxative fails in many a case because it does not have sufficient influence on the liver."

"Often you feel that the case calls for calomel and castor oil. Yet you hesitate to give the dose because it causes so much distress that you would feel brave to take it yourself."

A Household Necessity.

"You know you would give almost anything for a pleasant, palatable liquid remedy that would take the place of calomel and castor oil."

EXTENT OF ARCTIC ICE IS LARGEST

Sailing Captain Maintains Worst This Year That
White Men Know

(By the Associated Press)
SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 13.—How the ice in the Arctic Ocean, the worst this year that white men have ever known in the waters north of Alaska, worked to destroy two gasoline schooners, the Arctic of San Francisco and the Lady Kindersley of Vancouver, B. C., was related by Captain John Blackland, master of the sailing schooner C. S. Holmes, which is wintering here.

"I have been going into the Arctic since 1907," said Captain Blackland, "but never before did I find the ice so extensive as this year. The bergs were not so large as I have seen them, but the pack was tremendously more extensive."

"The cause of the great fields of ice along the northern Alaska coast this summer was the prevailing westerly winds. There is the same quantity of ice in the Arctic each year, but the winds determine where the fields will form. With easterly or northeasterly winds, it will be found off the coast of Siberia."

Captain Blackland said the Lady Kindersley and the Arctic were lost by following leads through the ice, which closed upon them. Members of the crew of the Arctic made their way ashore to Point Barrow, Alaska, over the frozen ocean. The men of the Lady Kindersley were taken aboard the steamer Boxer of the United States Bureau of Education, after a hard passage with canoes and skin boats over and through three miles of ice. The cargoes of the Arctic and the Lady Kindersley were abandoned.

"When I go into the Arctic ice," recalled the captain, "I always watch for a way to get my vessel out. I was 80 miles from Point Barrow while the Lady Kindersley was fast in the ice and her men were trying to get away from her. I was forced to go southwest in the ice, away from them, to keep from being caught myself."

The C. S. Holmes landed her cargo at Point Barrow before she hurried for Bering Strait. According to reports here, only one other vessel succeeded in delivering a cargo at Point Barrow, the northern tip of Alaska, this year. She was the Whaler Nanuk, which for a while was believed lost.

Oil News

The American Oil and Refining company has a commercial gasser on the McCurry farm in the north-east quarter of section 16-4-6, three miles north of Ada on Mississippi Avenue.

The well is good for approximately 8,000,000 cubic feet a day. Many of the citizens went out to the well this morning, and thought it was the largest gasser ever brought in in this section. The flow had been reduced to a 4-inch casing, and the noise made by the escaping gas was well-nigh deafening.

The gas is coming from broken sands between 1350 and 1425 feet. The hole is 1435 feet deep.

Inasmuch as the gas sands are badly broken, it is believed the well is toward the eastern extension of the heavy gas producing sand.

This well extends the gas area a half mile east and proves scores of more gassers can be brought in when they are needed.

The same company is beginning work today on Balthrop No. 1 in the southwest corner of the north-west quarter of the southeast quarter of section 9-4-6, a few hundred yards from the gas well brought in on the McCurry farm. This will be drilled with the rotary outfit used on the McCurry well.

The same company is drilling with standard tools in section 3-4-6 at 1200 feet.

SOME BOUNTY HUNTERS WIN PELTS BY FRAUD

(By the Associated Press)
TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 13.—The coyote, the fox and the wolf long have stood as synonyms for vile, guile and resourcefulness, but many hunters have put these animals to shame, judging from accounts related by A. K. Fisher, of the federal biological survey, who recently was here on an inspection trip.

Thousands of dollars have been collected illegally as bounties by dishonest hunters, Mr. Fisher declared. He said the most famous bounty fraud was perpetrated in Wisconsin, where $250,000 was paid on the heads of wolves which had been shipped in from Nevada. He added that about $180,000 was paid in a similar scheme in Pennsylvania before the deception was discovered.

"Wisconsin and Pennsylvania, where wolves were scarce, offered large bounties to get rid of these predatory animals," Mr. Fisher explained. "So several hunters went to Nevada, where wolves were plentiful and the bounty low, and shipped their bags to Wisconsin and Pennsylvania."

Another favorite trick of the bounty hunter, according to Mr. Fisher, is to alter rabbit and squirrel scalps so they resemble young coyotes and wolves.

The famous timber wolf is almost extinct in the nation, he stated.

MADAME LEROY TO ENTERTAIN AT AMERICAN

Manager Cobb of the American Theatre has procured Madame LeRoy, well known mind reader and future reader. The Denison paper had the following to say about one of her appearances in that city:

"The Denison Rotary Club had a double program of entertainment Thursday noon at their regular weekly luncheon held in the Hotel Simpson. Professor Gordon presented Mrs. LeRoy, who spent fifteen minutes telling Rotarians their names, the makes of watches in their pockets, the kind of coins they had in their hands and numerous other perplexing questions that startled several home guards, who began to get nervous lest the lady might tell something out of school, but she did not. Miss LeRoy finished her short entertaining program by telling several men present what the outcome of certain business questions would be in the near future. One member, who recently lost a revolver, was told when the revolver would be returned to the owner and the initials of the person having the gun were given. This member sat in deep study after the answer was given and when adjournment was taken, hid himself off in a hurry, evidently to look for the man whose initials were given."

OKLAHOMA AGGIES TO MEET CREIGHTON

State Farmers Suffered Only
One Defeat in Full
Season

STILLWATER, Okla., Nov. 13.—(Special)—After a week of rest, with no game scheduled the Oklahoma Aggies are busily preparing for their tilt with Creighton university gridsters at Omaha, Saturday.

Creighton is considered one of the hardest foes of Oklahoma A. and M. college this fall. Playing representative teams in the middle western states, the Hilltoppers have shown a strong offensive and have won more battles than they have lost.

The Maulbetsch men will be seeking revenge when they go to Omaha, as the Hilltoppers left Stillwater last season with a victory. The Oklahomans, however, will have the handicap of playing away from home.

"If the fellows fight as they did against Oklahoma university November 1, they'll beat Creighton," Coach John F. Maulbetsch remarked, in a discussion of the Aggies' chance of topping the Omaha huskies.

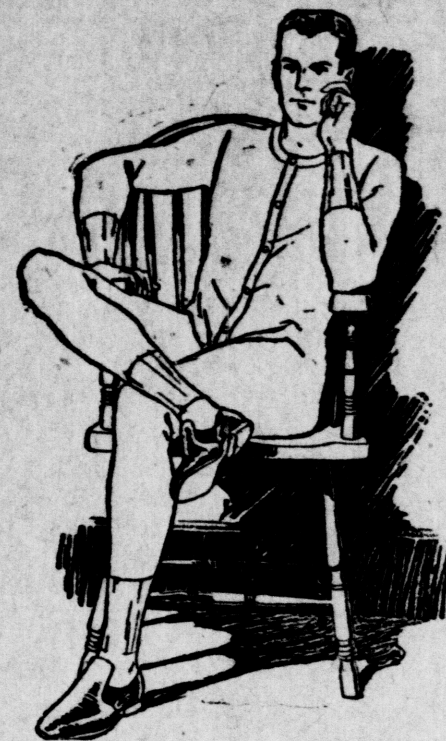

Scrimmaging this week has not been strenuous, the dashing charges of the varsity against the freshmen frequent in early season, have been replaced by extensive signal drilling.

A. and M. regulars will be in good physical condition to go against the Nebraska outfit, barring accidents before the squad leaves Stillwater Thursday night.

Creighton this fall has defeated Morningside 26 to 6, Des Moines U. 25 to 0, and North Dakota 34 to 0, having tied the Haskell Indians, 7 to 7, and having lost to Marquette 27 to 21.

Oklahoma Aggies have defeated Southwestern State Teachers' college 9 to 0, Kansas university 3 to 0, Missouri School of Mines 23 to 0, Phillips university 13 to 0 and Oklahoma university 6 to 0, losing only to Texas Christian university 17 to 10.

ARDMORE.—To stress proper use of music in the community, Mrs. Arthur Kyle, musical director of the First Presbyterian church here, recently prepared a "sermon in music" some of the parts being taken by members of the choir.

Why Your Light Bill Gets Higher in the Fall

Glance at this chart and you'll see that in July you used electric lights only a couple of hours in the evening. It didn't get dark until 8 o'clock and you spent most of the evening out in the car anyway.

But as the nights get longer and books and lamp light are more alluring than country roads, the hours when the electric light is needed increase until the peak is reached in December.

You're on the up-swing of the chart now—that's why your light bill may seem higher this month. But after all, electricity is the cheapest convenience in your home.
